MINOR LEAGUE AFFILIATE

Ted Nolan
Vice President of Hockey Operations

Ted Nolan enters his second season as the team's Vice President of Hockey. Nolan, 51, returns to Rochester for the first time since the 1984-85 season. Since his days in the Flower City, he has enjoyed success as a player, coach and humanitarian. His resume includes four seasons as a head coach in the National Hockey League, the 1996-97 Jack Adams Trophy as NHL Coach of the Year, a Calder Cup championship, a Memorial Cup title and numerous honors for his philanthropic efforts.

Nolan was born on the Garden River First Nation just outside Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, and played for the Soo Greyhounds of the Ontario Hockey League. The left winger was selected by the Detroit Red Wings in the fifth round (78th overall) in the 1978 NHL Amateur Draft. His pro career spanned eight seasons, most of them in the American Hockey League (1978-85). He played in 374 AHL games with teams in Adirondack, Rochester and Baltimore. During that time, Nolan also appeared in 78 NHL games between the Detroit Red Wings and Pittsburgh Penguins.

He broke into the pros with the Kansas City Red Wings of the Central Hockey League in 1978-79, before spending the next five seasons with the Adirondack Red Wings. In 1980-81, he was a member of the Red Wings' Calder Cup championship team. He appeared in 299 games with the Red Wings from 1979-84 and recorded 84 goals, 126 assists and 455 penalty minutes. Nolan played in 60 NHL games with Detroit and scored five goals, added 15 assists and collected 71 penalty minutes. While with the Detroit organization, he befriended another rising star, Jody Gage. The two played together for five seasons before Nolan departed for the Buffalo Sabres/Rochester Americans in 1984-85.

Nolan, former captain with the Amerks finished his only season in Rochester sixth on the team in points (62) and third in penalty minutes (152). He ended his playing career in 1985-86 as he split time with the AHL Baltimore Skipjacks and the NHL's Pittsburgh Penguins.

He returned to the Sault Ste. Marie Greyhounds as an assistant coach and then became head coach in 1988, as a mid-season replacement. He remained with the Greyhounds until the end of the 1994 season. Nolan led the Greyhounds to three consecutive Memorial Cup tournament berths, winning the Memorial Cup in 1993.

Nolan was promoted to the NHL following the 1993-94 season, taking an assistant job with the Hartford Whalers. The next season, he accepted the position of head coach of the NHL's Buffalo Sabres, where he had his best success. In his second season in Buffalo (1995-96), he led the team to the Northeast Division title and a berth in the conference finals. After helping the Sabres to a 19-point improvement in the standings and the team's first division title in 16 years, he was rewarded by being named the NHL Coach of the Year.

After working behind the Buffalo bench he returned to competitive coaching after an eight-year absence as the head coach and director of hockey operations for the Moncton Wildcats of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League. In 2005-06, he led Moncton to its first-ever President Cup as QMJHL champion, finishing first overall in the regular season at 52-15-0-2. The Wildcats advanced to the finals of the Memorial Cup where they finished runner-up to the Quebec Remparts. For his efforts, he was named the QMJHL All-Star head coach and the league's General Manager of the Year.

He returned to the professional ranks in 2006 with the NY Islanders after a nine-year layoff from coaching in the NHL and confounded experts by leading the team to the Stanley Cup Playoffs. In a March 2008 Sports Illustrated player survey, he was rated second to only Detroit's Mike Babcock as the coach players would most like to play for. In two seasons on Long Island he guided the Islanders to a record of 73-68-0 to improve his lifetime record to 147-140-40 as an NHL head coach.

Away from the rink, Nolan has devoted himself to First Nations causes, including teaching hockey to First Nations children. His work in this area earned him numerous awards, including the National Aboriginal Achievement Award, the Sault Ste. Marie Medal of Merit, the Order of Ontario 1991, Sault Ste. Marie Kiwanis Citizen of the Year and in 1986 he was chosen as a role model in the National Native Alcohol and Drug Abuse Program. He has also received an honorary diploma for human relations from Niagara College (1997) and accepted an honorary doctorate degree in law from Laurentien University (2002).

Nolan is an active member in the Aboriginal community and in 2003 established the Ted Nolan Foundation in honor of his late mother, Rose. The Ted Nolan Foundation mission statement is "through our philosophy of healthy lifestyle, the Ted Nolan Foundation is committed to the healing process to renew and revitalize the mind, body and spirit of our young people. We will explore to help us train a new cadre of Aboriginal leaders today, to take their rightful place in Canadian society tomorrow. We will help develop programs at the community level for First Nations youth in communities no matter how isolated or poverty stricken. We will raise scholarship funds for First Nation women wishing to complete their education."

In addition, the Ted Nolan Foundation and Tim Horton's Children's Foundation recently agreed to a five-year commitment to sponsor a first nation leadership camp this coming October in St. George, Ontario.

Ted and his wife Sandra reside in Garden River First Nation and are the proud parents of Brandon, a former player with the Carolina Hurricanes organization; and Jordan, a member of the Sault Ste. Marie Greyhounds in the Ontario Hockey League.

MINOR LEAGUE AFFILIATE

Chuck Weber
Head Coach

Chuck Weber enters his first season as head coach of the Rochester Americans in 2010-11. The appointment to the position marks his return to the American Hockey League coaching scene for the first time since the 2002-03 season, but first as a head coach. The Florida Panthers named Weber as the head coach of their AHL affiliate on July 27, 2010 after he guided the ECHL's Cincinnati Cyclones to their second Kelly Cup championship in three years this past spring. Weber becomes the 28th head coach in the 55-year history of the franchise and the first American bench boss in 14 years since John Tortorella led Rochester to its last Calder Cup in 1996.

"We are very pleased to have hired Chuck as our new head coach in Rochester," said Florida Panthers General Manager Dale Tallon. "He is a bright hockey mind, who created a winning environment in Cincinnati over the last four seasons, leading his club to a pair of ECHL titles. Chuck is a high character and hard working coach who will do an excellent job developing and working with our top prospects in Rochester."

Weber, 37, previously served as the Vice President of Hockey Operations & Head Coach of the Cincinnati Cyclones (ECHL) for the last four years. The Lockport, New York native led his club to the ECHL conference finals in three of his four years at the helm, capturing the ECHL Kelly Cup title in 2008 and 2010. With the victory to secure the 2010 Kelly Cup, Weber won his 45th career Kelly Cup playoff game. He passed former Alaska Aces coach (and current St. Louis Blues head coach) Davis Payne with that total for most by a coach in any four-year period in ECHL history. Weber was named ECHL Coach of the Year in 2007-08, after finishing second in voting in 2006-07.

Prior to joining the Cyclones, Weber served as an assistant coach and assistant director of hockey operations with the Utah Grizzlies (ECHL). Weber began his coaching career during the 1999-00 season as an assistant with the Orlando Solar Bears (IHL). In just his second season (2000-01) as an assistant coach, he was part of the Turner Cup championship team in the league's final season. The following year (2001-2002), Weber was the assistant coach with Trenton (ECHL), and the Titans posted the ECHL's second-best record (46-16-10). In 2002-03, Weber served as an assistant coach with the Milwaukee Admirals (AHL). During his year with the Admirals, Weber helped direct the team to a 32-27-14-7 record.

Weber, a 1995 graduate of the University of Albany, majored in communications and had minors in athletic training and business. He was also a member of the Great Danes hockey program.

JARROD SKALDE
Head Coach

Jarrod Skalde was named as the head coach of the Cincinnati Cyclones in August 2010. Previously, Skalde, 39, was the head coach of the Bloomington Prairie Thunder of the IHL.

The Niagara Falls, Ontario native comes to Cincinnati after spending two years behind the bench of the Bloomington Prairie Thunder (IHL). He has 19 years of service in professional hockey, 17 as a player. Selected by the New Jersey Devils in the second round of the 1989 NHL Entry Draft, Skalde went on to log 115 games with eight different teams in the National Hockey League. In addition to the Devils, he played for the Chicago Blackhawks, Atlanta Thrashers, Anaheim Mighty Ducks, San Jose Sharks, Dallas Stars, Calgary Flames and Philadelphia Flyers. He also played professionally in the IHL, AHL, Switzerland, Sweden and Japan during a career that spanned 1,071 games. In 1992-93, Skalde appeared in four games with the Cyclones – putting up three points (1 goal, 2 assists). He was the first player in Cyclones history to have been called up directly to the NHL.

A five-time team captain and seven-time assistant captain, Skalde was a member of championship teams in Oshawa (OHL, 1990) and Orlando (IHL, 2001). During his professional career, he scored 308 goals with 513 assists for 821 points. He was named the Utah Grizzles "Community Man of the Year" while playing there in 2004.

Skalde has learned the coaching craft from some of the best to ever stand behind the bench. He played for the legendary Herb Brooks, Stanley Cup Champion coach Ken Hitchcock, Jack Adams award-winner (NHL Coach of the Year) Bill Barber, and former Cincinnati Stingers great Robbie Ftorek.

Skalde and his wife, Erin, have two children, 12-year-old daughter True and 7-year-old son Skate.

There will be two types of game credentials – one type will allow press box access (working press, radio/TV and visiting team official) and one that will not have press box access (photo/tech and cameramen). Cameramen and technicians are asked to remain in the Press Lounge when not filming. Contact Justin Copertino at (954) 835-7712 for credential information.

Press Entrance

The press entrance is located at the northwest corner of the BankAtlantic Center, just to the left of the arena's loading docks. It will open an hour and a half before the start of each game and close half an hour after the game begins. Please use the press entrance or the security entrance when attending Panthers practices at the BankAtlantic Center.

Press Box Access

To access the Press Box, please exit the Press Lounge at the same door you entered and proceed approximately 40 yards to the press express elevator, which will be on the right. Take the press express elevator to the Sky View Level, which will open directly into the Press Box.

Dressing Room Access

First Annual Bowling Tournament

A new event this for the 2010-11 season, the Bowling Tournament gives fans an opportunity to throw strikes with some of their favorite Panthers players and personalities. An awards ceremony and raffle will follow. Children and families affected by pediatric cancer are also invited to join in on the festivities and out-bowl the likes of Stanley C. Panther, forward David Booth and GM Dale Tallon.

Food & Toy Drives

The Florida Panthers players' wives demonstrate their generosity during the holiday season by partnering with the Florida Panthers to host food and toy drives. During the month of November, the wives host food drives outside of the BankAtlantic Center to benefit the Cooperative Feeding Program, a food/clothing shelter in Fort Lauderdale. Fans are encouraged to donate any nonperishable food items before select Florida Panthers home games. The entire staff of Sunrise Sports & Entertainment as well as Florida Panthers players and their families spend one day volunteering at the Cooperative Feeding Program stocking pantry shelves and distributing Thanksgiving meals to families in need.

Last year, the Florida Panthers were able to feed nearly 400 families a Thanksgiving meal, complete with a turkey.

In December, the Florida Panthers and the Florida Panthers players' wives partner with the U.S. Marine Corps Reserves to collect toys for the popular Toys for Tots program. The Florida Panthers host toy drives before select home games and all donated toys are then distributed to children in need in South Florida.

Children's Hospital Visits

Each season, Florida Panthers players, broadcasters, coaches, Ice Dancers and Stanley C. Panther make their annual hospital visits to spread holiday cheer to the patients. Players sign autographs, take pictures and distribute gift bags filled with Panthers memorabilia to all patients.

"Shirts Off Our Backs" Auction

The final home game of the regular season allows the Foundation to host one of the most popular auctions of the season, the "Shirts Off Our Backs" auction, where the Foundation auctions off the game-used jerseys of each member of the Florida Panthers. This action packed auction is held through the second intermission where fans bid on their favorite jerseys at the auction tables. At the conclusion of the game, all winning bidders are escorted to center ice for a special post game ceremony where each player skates over to the fan that won their jersey, takes off their jersey and signs it while fans in the crowd look on.

FAN DEVELOPMENT & GRASSROOTS MARKETING

PANTHERS ASSIST PROGRAM

Middle school teams from Broward County come together to battle for the honor as being crowned the best inline team in South Florida. Photos, memorabilia and the cup itself can be seen in the Den of Honor located in the BankAtlantic Center during any home game or event.

Panthers Cubs On Ice/Two Minute Shootout

At select Panthers home games, local youth teams are invited to play a mini-game or participate in a shoot-out during first period intermission. To learn more about this once in a lifetime experience.

FLORIDA PANTHERS ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Florida Panthers and the NHL have formed an official Florida Panthers Alumni Association headed by former NHL defenseman and current Panthers broadcaster Randy Moller. The Alumni Association has a mission to encourage retired players and their families to remain involved with the Panthers organization and smooth the transition from player to businessman in the South Florida community.

The Alumni Association also raises money for South Florida youth hockey and other charitable causes. It serves to benefit sponsors and supporters through speaking engagements, hospital visits, promotional tours and player appearances. The alumni association has distributed more than $290,000.00 to the youth of South Florida.

Twelve seasons after taking South Florida on a memorable and wild ride to the Stanley Cup finals, the '96 Panthers came together at BankAtlantic Center on July 28, 2007 for a reunion game against former Panther alumni.

Before a crowd of over 11,000 – a crowd that lined up several hours before the game to get autographs from players and coaches – the '96 Panthers defeated the Florida Alumni 9-5.

The players that attended the reunion game from the '96 Panthers included Mark Fitzpatrick, Mike Hough, Ed Jovanovski, Paul Laus, Bill Lindsay, Scott Mellanby, Gord Murphy, Ray Sheppard, Brian Skrudland, Geoff Smith, John Vanbiesbrouck and head coach Doug MacLean.

The Panthers will host Alumni appreciation weekends during the 2010-11 season. Stay tuned to floridapanthers.com for more details as they become available.

Order of Selection for 2011 Entry Draft

The NHL's annual Draft Drawing is a weighted lottery system to determine the order of selection for the first 14 picks of the 2011 Entry Draft.

The 14 teams that did not qualify for the Stanley Cup Playoffs, or clubs that acquired those clubs' 2011 first-round draft picks, participate in the Drawing.

The Club selected in the drawing may not move up more than four positions in the draft order, thus only the five Clubs with the fewest regular-season points have the opportunity to receive the first overall selection.

No Club can move down more than one position as a result of the Draft Drawing.

In the first round of the 2010 Entry Draft, the order of selection is as follows:

a) The first 14 selections, as determined by the Draft Drawing (see above);
b) Clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2011 Stanley Cup Playoffs, regular-season division winners excluded, in inverse order of points;
c) Regular-season division winning clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2011 Stanley Cup Playoffs, in inverse order of points;
d) Clubs eliminated in the 2011 Conference Finals, in inverse order of points;
e) Stanley Cup finalist
f) Stanley Cup champion

In the second and subsequent rounds the order of selection is as follows:

a) Non-playoff clubs in inverse order of points;
b) Clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2011 Stanley Cup Playoffs, regular-season division winners excluded, in inverse order of points;
c) Regular-season division winning clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2011 Stanley Cup Playoffs, in inverse order of points;
d) Clubs eliminated in the 2011 Conference Finals, in inverse order of points;
e) Stanley Cup finalist
f) Stanley Cup champion
